Suspect Assaults Man with Baseball Bat

On December 12, 2021 at approximately 10 PM, Manchester Police responded to the Elliot Hospital for a report of a male who had been assaulted.

The victim told police he had gone to 337 Lowell St to visit someone, but before he entered the building he encountered, 41 year old David Malaquias, and the two began to argue. The victim reported that during the course of the argument, Malaquias got an aluminum baseball bat, swung it and hit him in the head twice. The victim's injuries were non-life threatening.

Police made contact with Maraquias and he was taken into custody without incident. He was charged with 2 counts of First Degree Assault. Malaquias is scheduled for arraignment today (12/13) in Hillsborough Superior Court-North.
